WORSHIP

From Green to Gold – April 9, 2017

This week we begin the holiest of all weeks of the year. Holy Week is always a beautiful time of the year as we prepare to celebrate the sacred mysteries of our Catholic Faith. The week opens with these Palm Sunday Masses, marking the triumphal entrance of Our Lord into Jerusalem. It will end with Jesus' horrific crucifixion. Today we receive those blessed palms as a reminder of the victory of the faithful by the grace of God over the enemies of our souls. It represents a victory of the spirit over the flesh. Monday and Tuesday of Holy Week are somewhat typical. We have our usual Masses and confessions at 11:30 on Monday, but then each of those two nights we will hear confessions from 6:30 to 8:00pm. We do that as well on Wednesday evening as we have all Lent long. This is true throughout our diocese and the Archdiocese of Washington. Wednesday is known as Spy Wednesday, as it is the day that Judas began "spying" on Jesus, looking for the right moment to betray Him. Thursday is called Holy Thursday. That morning at the cathedral in Arlington Bishop Burbidge will celebrate the Chrism Mass at 10:30. That evening at 7:30 we have the Mass of the Last Supper. This is a Mass during which we mark the institution of the sacraments of the Eucharist and Holy Orders. As the issues from last year are cleared up, we will again wash feet. Following that Mass we will have adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in the Parish Hall until Midnight.

Good Friday is of course the day we commemorate how Our Lord suffered and died for us. As in years past the day starts with Office of Readings and Morning Prayer at 8:30am as well as confessions. The Stations of the Cross are prayed and confessions are again heard at noon. Both the Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet are also prayed. That is all followed by the Good Friday Liturgy at 3:00pm, the very hour Jesus died. Things begin again at 8:30am Holy Saturday with Morning Prayer and the Rosary. Confessions are heard at 9:00am. This is the last time they are heard before Easter, which officially begins with the Vigil at 8:30 that evening. The schedule for Easter Sunday is our usual Sunday schedule, Masses at 7:30am, 9:00am, 10:45am, and 5:00pm. Easter Monday we return to our usual daily schedule.

All the above will occur in the church, which should be more or less "renovated." In fact most things of this first phase should be done this Sunday. The pews have returned and the new ones have arrived. They look fantastic. The church looks like a church again. There are some small things to be done yet and we are waiting for the new altars, ambo, and baptismal font. They might be here by Pentecost. An altar rail will also be coming, but I am not sure on its timing. Then there is Phase II which, funds permitting, will include wall murals, lighting, etc. I have heard from some of you that you very much like the new colors in the sanctuary. I have also heard from some that they do not, thinking that it is perhaps too much color. Some of that will "go away" after the murals are done. There really is a lot more we could do with the church, all modified from the original renderings of what might have been done. What is done moving forward depends completely on how much more funds come in for that purpose. Obviously, we need your weekly contributions as well to keep the parish running smoothly, and we do want to look at a gym and rectory down the road. More importantly, we want you to have a truly holy Holy Week and a glorious Easter. We furthermore pray that all we do this next week helps us grow in holiness and prepare all the more for heaven someday. That is why it is my hope that many of you attend all or some of the many opportunities that will be available this week. As I mentioned last week, two weeks from now is Divine Mercy Sunday. Before all the Masses that day we will pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet, celebrating the gift of God's love and forgiveness. I will say a bit more about that here that Sunday as well as about a special 100th anniversary that is coming soon. ~ In Christ, Fr. Kleinmann

FROM THE PARISH OFFICE

Parish Office Schedule Change on Good Friday

The Parish Office will be closed on April 14th in observance of Good Friday.

Blessing of Easter Food Baskets

The custom of blessing food baskets for Easter arose from the discipline of fasting throughout Lent and especially the Easter Triduum. Easter was the first day when meat, eggs and other foods could be eaten again. Traditionally, the basket included a lamb molded of butter, Pascha (special Easter bread), and other samplings of these foods. We will bless your Easter food baskets on Holy Saturday, April 15th at 12:00 noon in the Church.

Car Raffle Update

Thanks to all who have returned car raffle stubs and tickets. And, special thanks to all who have picked up extras in the parish office to sell to their relatives, friends and co-workers. Photographs of the 2017 prize vehicles are now displayed on the parish bulletin boards. They will be raffled off at All Saints on Saturday, April 29th, along with twenty cash drawings. Each $5 ticket offers the purchaser a chance to win each of the cars and each of the 20 prizes. Our parish receives 60% of ticket proceeds. Please remember that all ticket stubs and unused tickets must be returned—dropped off, mailed or via the collection basket—by Monday, April 10th.

Calling Holy Week Volunteers

A small team of 6-8 adults and adolescents who seek service hours is needed to assist with Holy Week preparations. If you can volunteer for any of these days, please email Eileen.Chiama@cox.net:

Fri. 4/14 9:00 am Good Friday preparation; and

Religious Education News

Easter Break: There will be no Religious Education classes April 10th, 11th, 17th & 18th. Classes resume Monday & Tuesday, April 24th & 25th. The Religious Education Department is in need of volunteers:

If you are able to help with any of these special events, please contact Julie Chadowski, jchadowski@stveronica.net.

Recognizing Jesus in the Eucharist

Many people have said that what drew them to the Catholic Church was the Eucharist. Is there someone you could invite to Mass and to explore what else the Catholic faith might hold for them? For more information contact Scott Bradford, RCIA@stveronica.net, about classes held Monday evenings at 7:30 pm in the St. John Paul II Room. Join us on Monday, April 10th when we discuss the 7th and 10th Commandments.

Next Norbertine Novitiate Meeting

There will be a Novitiate meeting of the Norbertine Third Order after the 10:45 am Mass this weekend. Meet in the parish hall for a "bring your own" lunch. After lunch, there will be a recorded lecture presented in the Library/P211. Please join us! Contact Wes or Madeleine Marchesseault at 703-793-1020 with any questions.

God, Culture and Reason: How a Society's Concept of God Impacts Progress

Join Father Isenberg and the Patricians Monday, April 10th at 7:00 pm in the acolyte room as we explore how radically different concepts of God impacted Jewish, Christian and Muslim culture throughout history. In particular, we'll discuss how the Muslim scientific golden age in the 10th century came to an end because of a theological shift that was felt through the entire society. Food and drink will be provided. All are welcome.

Never Been Confirmed Growing Up?

Catholics of high school age and older who have never been confirmed may receive the sacrament of Confirmation on June 11th at St. Theresa Catholic Church in Ashburn or on June 25th at the Cathedral of St. Thomas More in Arlington. There will be four classes offered at St. Veronica to prepare candidates for Confirmation, in late April through mid-May on Sunday evening. Please call the parish office as soon as possible to register.

Divine Mercy Novena Begins Good Friday

In preparation for, and leading up to, Divine Mercy Sunday, April 23rd, St. Veronica will be praying a novena to The Divine Mercy after all Masses. The request and prayers for this novena were given by Our Lord directly to St. Faustina: "I desire that during these nine days [beginning on Good Friday] you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw therefrom strength and refreshment and whatever grace they need in the hardships of life, especially at the hour of death." Jesus to St. Faustina, Diary of St. Faustina, 1209-29. We will make the novena prayers available, which bring a different group of souls to the Heart of Jesus each of the nine days, as instructed by Our Lord, or you may find them online. See <http://tinyurl.com/huv725h>. Join us in this powerful entreaty for mercy.

The Lord never tires of forgiving. Never!
It is we who tire of asking for His forgiveness.
Let us ask for the grace never to tire of asking for forgiveness, because God never tires of giving His forgiveness.
~Pope Francis

Book Signing Event

Father Paul Scalia will speak at a book signing for And So We Pray, Supporting Young Adults through the College Years on Sunday, April 30th at 3:00 pm. The author, Maribeth Harper, and Father Scalia, of the Diocese of Arlington, will be hosted by Barnes and Noble at Catholic University 625 Monroe St NE, Washington, DC 20017

And So We Pray was published last August for Praying College Moms, an organization promoting parish-based prayer groups for mothers desiring community and the means to support their college students through prayer. And So We Pray, the first in a series of books planned for PCM, weaves stories of real people with the teachings of Jesus Christ to provide meaningful help to moms who find themselves facing issues like homesickness, college "dating", changing family dynamics and much more. Each chapter ends with a prayer, questions for reflection, and a prayer practice, as well as four relevant Scripture verses for deeper meditation. And So We Pray 2 will be released in August 2017.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
