WORSHIP

From Green to Gold – July 23, 2017

Last Sunday we enrolled approximately 25 people in the Brown Scapular. As was noted in previous bulletins, this past Sunday would have been the feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. It was under this title that the Blessed Mother asked us to wear the scapular as a reminder of God's presence in our lives and that she would intercede for us. Enrollment in the scapular typically takes place in second grade after a child makes his or her First Holy Communion. Obviously some missed that for various reasons, thus the ceremony last Sunday after the 9:00 am Mass. This Sunday at all Masses we have Fr. Posey with us. It works out well, as Fr. Isenberg is away with our Rangers Scout troop in Canada, where they are on a camping trip. Fr. Posey is pastor of St. James Parish in Falls Church and is director of the diocesan Missions Office. He also served for a number of years in the diocesan mission parish in Banica, Dominican Republic. He is conducting the annual mission appeal here, and this year it is for Banica. I thank him for his help this weekend and ask that you be as generous as you can be to this worthy appeal. I do also want to remind you that a few weeks ago I mentioned that we were collecting gift cards for the poor. We were specifically looking for ones from Walmart, as that store has all the items that most of the poor that come to us need. Again, if you are so moved to help in this way, please drop the cards off at the parish office. You could place them in the collection basket on Sundays, if that is more convenient. Thank you, as always, for all of your tremendous generosity.

Moving on briefly to a much more mundane topic but also in line with the title of this column, this coming Thursday, July 27th, is the opening of the Green Bay Packers Training Camp. I often try to get home to visit my family about this time of the summer. In addition my Dad's birthday is right around that same time (the day before this year). Actually Fr. Isenberg returns on Wednesday, and I will head home to God's country next week. I'm a week or so delayed as a nephew of mine is getting married on August 5th. My point is that it is getting to be that time again to start talking about my favorite NFL team. No doubt I am hoping for a great year. As with all things and especially football, time will tell. I think the right pieces are in place. Are the Packers the best team this year? Probably not, but there are so many other factors that determine how things will turn out, so I'm hoping for the best, as we should with all things.

This week also brings us another somewhat significant date. Tuesday, the 25th, is the 49th anniversary of the promulgation of the landmark papal encyclical, Humanae Vitae. This document was written by Blessed Pope Paul VI after the close of Vatican II in response to the moral question of the use of birth control or contraception. (I may speak about this next Sunday in my homily.) The issue was controversial then and sadly continues to be today. That is true because people, including many Catholics, either don't understand or don't want to accept the Church's teaching on this subject. Most other Christian Faiths have no problem with this, but that was not always the case. In fact prior to 1930 every Christian church taught that the use of contraception was wrong. As the tide was turning, Pope Pius XI issued an encyclical on the topic. People continued to challenge the Church's teaching, so 35 years later Vatican II tried to address it, but it was decided that it was such a "hot topic" that it would be tabled and studied separately. A commission was established by the pope to do just that. It was made up of theologians, medical people, and lay faithful. The result was mixed, but the majority recommended to the pope that the Church change its teaching. This result had leaked out and so many anticipated a change. After reviewing the commission's report however, Paul VI replied that he could not change Church teaching and issued a truly beautiful response, his encyclical, Humanae Vitae, on July 25, 1968. To be continued . . . ~ In Christ, Fr. Kleinmann

The Holy Father's July Prayer Intention

Evangelization: Those distant from the Christian faith

That our brothers and sisters who have strayed from the faith, through our prayer and witness to the Gospel, may rediscover the merciful closeness of the Lord and the beauty of the Christian life.

FROM THE PARISH OFFICE

Modest Attire

Now that summer is half over, perhaps it is a good time to reflect on how we dress in the presence of the Lord, whether attending Mass or other sacred ceremonies.

Upon entering the Church, we enter the house of God and come into the Real Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Of course, our interior disposition of reverence is most important. Reverence, however, is also to be expressed outwardly—in the modesty and reverence of our dress and actions, which should be a sign of respect for Our Lord and others in His Presence and not a way of drawing attention to ourselves.

Some specific guidelines come to mind: We should not wear shorts, halter-tops, low-cut shirts, flip-flops, mini-skirts, tight-fitting clothing, or clothing that exposes the back or midriff. While some of these items may be appropriate for picnics or other outdoor activities, they certainly are not appropriate for Church. Through our modest attire and good example as we worship in His Presence, we give due honor and glory to God by showing our reverential love for Him and our respect for our fellow parishioners. Thank you for trying to adhere to these guidelines, and may Our Lord bless you always.

EDUCATION, CATECHESIS AND EVANGELIZATION

Religious Education News

Registration for our Religious Education program for the 2017-18 school year is open. Registration forms are in the vestibules and on our website.

The religious education program is in need of Catechists and Assistant Catechists for the 2017-18 school year. Volunteers are vital to the success of the religious education program. No experience is necessary. The only requirement is to be a Catholic in good standing with a desire to pass on the Faith to the children of our Parish. We especially need Catechists for grades 1 and 2 on Monday and for grades 6 and 7 on Tuesday. We need Assistant Catechists at all grade levels on Monday and for grades 2, 3, 4, and 8 on Tuesday. All volunteers are eligible for tuition discounts.

The Gift of Jesus' Precious Blood

With the gift of Jesus' Precious Blood on the cross and in the Eucharist, we can reflect on the freedom given to us through our Baptism into Him—to be heirs of the promise and liberated from sin. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the way by which persons become "citizens of the Kingdom" through Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. For inquiries about RCIA or the Faith for those adults who are not baptized, are of other faiths, or were not confirmed, please contact Scott Bradford, RCIA@stveronica.net.

FOCUS Missionary to Speak Next Weekend

Mary Kate Vander Woude is a full-time Catholic missionary with FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students), and she works to bring the truth of Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church to college students across the country. FOCUS missionaries do this primarily through bible studies, one-on-one mentorship, outreach events and international mission trips. She served for two years as a campus missionary at the University of Connecticut and is now entering her second year with the FOCUS Missions Department in Denver. This branch of FOCUS is responsible for planning and leading 125+ mission trips a year all over the world. These trips enable college students to encounter Christ in the poorest of the poor, both physically and spiritually, while at the same time reanalyzing where their faith is in their own lives. As a FOCUS missionary, she raises her entire financial support. Mary Kate will share her experiences and invite others to support her on this mission following all Sunday Masses next weekend. Questions? 703-517-8912, mary.vanderwoude@focus.org, or <https://www.focus.org/missionaries/mary-kate-vanderwoude>.

That Man Is You! Summer Session Continues Next Saturday, July 22nd

In Divine Mercy, renowned speaker and author Father Michael Gaitley tells the dramatic history of God's love and mercy through the transformative message of St. Faustina, the miraculous appearance of Mary at Fatima, the witness of St. Maximilian Kolbe, and the papacy of St. John Paul II. This series features the brilliant cinematic artistry of the Augustine Institute's film studio, and is a perfect study to go deeper into a heartfelt understanding of Divine Mercy.

In our next session we will discuss "Fatima." Against the backdrop of a world engulfed in war, the prophetic drama surrounding a small town in Portugal captures the minds and hearts of believers and unbelievers alike.

Join the men of TMIY at 6:30 am for breakfast in the parish hall followed by the presentation and small group discussion at 7:00. We will conclude in time for 8:30 am Mass should you wish to attend. For more information, email TMIY@stveronica.net.

Parish Library Donations

If you have any current or religious books, CDs or DVDs that you are finished with, please consider donating them to the parish library. Words of Our Lady of Fatima

"Pray, pray very much. Make sacrifices for sinners. Many souls go to hell, because no one is willing to sacrifice and pray for them."

Divine Mercy Corner

"I desire that you know more profoundly the love that burns in My Heart for souls, and you will understand this when you meditate upon My Passion. Call upon My mercy on behalf of sinners; I desire their salvation. When you say this prayer, with a contrite heart and with faith on behalf of some sinner, I will give him the grace of conversion. This is the prayer: O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of Mercy for us, I trust in You." Jesus to St. Faustina, Dairy 186-187.

~ Fast & Pray for Persecuted Christians ~

From the Office of Vocations

"The Spirit too helps us in our weakness, for we do not know how to pray as we ought." Do you approach the Lord in prayer with the confident strength given by the Holy Spirit asking that He make known your unique vocation? If God may be inviting you to consider the priesthood or consecrated life, call Father J.D. Jaffe at 703-841-2514 or write j.jaffe@arlingtondiocese.org.

Adoration Chapel Needs over the Summer

The Adoration Chapel is in need of substitutes willing to take an hour or two for one of our committed adorers during the summer vacation months. If you can help, please contact Linda Loch at adoration@stveronica.net.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
