From Green to Gold – July 9, 2017

As we continue through summer and as I mentioned here last week we can try to enjoy this more relaxing time of the year. That is at least the hope, that these summer days are a time of a slower pace and vacations. As I also commented last week, we can't take a vacation, however, from our vocation or calling to be holy, so we maintain our lives of prayer. In fact with the more relaxed sense of things perhaps we can spend even more time in prayer. There are all kinds of opportunity to fulfill this duty before God. In addition, we need to keep up with our works of mercy. I did list a few speakers and collections that are on the horizon here at St. Veronica's. I want to provide a little more detail on all of what is coming in the weeks ahead.

The Sabat Mater group, for instance, will be soliciting help this weekend to fund their activities for Hispanic youth. A week ago they held a summer camp here at the parish. Two weeks from now we will have Fr. Posey, pastor of St. James in Falls Church, director of the diocesan Missions Office, and a former pastor of our diocesan mission in the Dominican Republic, here to preach all the Masses and raise funds for that particular outreach. The following weekend (July 29-30) Mary Kate VanderWoude, the niece of the pastor of Holy Trinity in Gainesville, will be here to talk about FOCUS, the college outreach group. Then the weekend of August 12th-13th representatives from Crossroads will be here. This is the Pro-Life group who marches across the U.S. to raise an awareness of the sanctity of all human life, especially the unborn. That same weekend the second collection is for children in the diocese who have special needs. In part they fund the Options program at Paul VI High School. Finally the second collection this week is for the people of Africa, who no doubt are in desperate need of assistance. This is our opportunity to help them, as the others above provide further opportunities.

This coming Wednesday, July 12th, is the feast of our parish patroness. Unfortunately, this feast is not on the official Church calendar. To be honest with you for that reason it simply did not occur to me last year, and we let that day pass with no festivity or recognition of this saint. I do apologize for that. I didn't want that to happen again this year. We will recognize her at Mass that day and here in the bulletin. Although St. Veronica doesn't explicitly appear in the Bible, some do think the hemorrhaging woman who touches the hem of Jesus' garment and is healed might be Veronica, tradition does accept her as authentic. She is one of the women from Jerusalem who accompanied Our Lord on His way to Calvary. Along that way, moved by compassion, she approached Jesus and wiped from His face the sweat, spit, and mud that had collected on it. In return an image of His face was imprinted on her veil. Legend has it that she was later summoned to Rome by Emperor Tiberius who in turn was cured of his illness when Veronica touched her veil and the sacred image of Jesus' face to the emperor. She then remained in Rome and gave her veil at her death to Pope Clement. It later was enshrined in St. Peter's Basilica in the Vatican.

Another story involving the Veil of St. Veronica revolves around Sr. Marie of St. Peter, a Carmelite, who beginning in 1844 received visions from Christ during which He asked for devotion to His Holy Face. This was to be in reparation for the sacrileges and blasphemies committed against Jesus. Jesus also told her our sins add to the spit and mud He encountered during His Passion. Devotion then to the Holy Face of Jesus and to the Veil of St. Veronica help move us to a more holy place and away from sin. This devotion was approved by Pope Leo XIII in 1885. We will have a short reception honoring our patroness after the 8:30 am Mass that morning. I'll say a few more words about her here next week. St. Veronica, pray for us.

~ In Christ, Fr. Kleinmann

The Holy Father's July Prayer Intention

Evangelization: Those distant from the Christian faith

That our brothers and sisters who have strayed from the faith, through our prayer and witness to the Gospel, may rediscover the merciful closeness of the Lord and the beauty of the Christian life.

That Man Is You! Summer Session Continues

Next Saturday, July 15th

In Divine Mercy, renowned speaker and author Father Michael Gaitley tells the dramatic history of God's love and mercy through the transformative message of St. Faustina, the miraculous appearance of Mary at Fatima, the witness of St. Maximilian Kolbe, and the papacy of St. John Paul II. This series features the brilliant cinematic artistry of the Augustine Institute's film studio, and is a perfect study to go deeper into a heartfelt understanding of Divine Mercy.

Our next session will be in three weeks, on July 15th. We will discuss “Faustina and the Spread of Divine Mercy.” The tumultuous history of Poland set the stage for a remarkable woman to become the catalyst of the main drama of the Second Greatest Story Ever Told, a drama involving the modern message of Divine Mercy and its popularity following World War II.

Join the men of TMIY at 6:30 am for breakfast in the parish hall followed by the presentation and small group discussion at 7:00. We will conclude in time for 8:30 am Mass should you wish to attend. For more information, email TMIY@stveronica.net.

*Because the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel falls on a Sunday this year, the liturgy for the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time take precedence.

On July 16, 1251 at Aylesford in Kent, England, according to tradition, Our Lady appeared to Saint Simon Stock, a Carmelite monk, promising that whoever wore her "habit" devoutly would be assured of eternal salvation. Her "habit" is the Brown Scapular, two pieces of cloth joined by strings and worn over the shoulders, a miniature element of the Carmelite habit. According to the Catholic Encyclopedia, "Whoever, therefore, even though he now be a sinner, wears the badge [scapular] of the Mother of God throughout life as her faithful servant, not presumptuously relying on the scapular as on a miraculous amulet, but trustfully confiding in the power and goodness of Mary, may securely hope that Mary will through her powerful and motherly intercession procure for him [her] all the necessary graces for true conversion and for perseverance in good."

Words of Our Lady of Fatima

"There are many wars and discords in the world. Wars are only punishments for the sins of the world. It is necessary to do penance. If the people amend themselves, Our Lord shall still come to the aid of the world. If they do not amend themselves, punishment shall come."

~ Fast & Pray for Persecuted Christians ~

Divine Mercy Corner

"My daughter, encourage souls to say the chaplet which I have given to you. It pleases Me to grant everything they ask of Me by saying the chaplet. . . Write that when they say this chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and the dying person, not as the just Judge but as the merciful Savior." (Jesus to St. Faustina, Diary, 1541). Earlier, Our Lord said to St. Faustina, "At the hour of their death, I defend as My own glory every soul that will say this chaplet; or when others say it for a dying person, the pardon is the same." (Diary, 811) JESUS I TRUST IN YOU!

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
