From Green to Gold – September 24, 2017

With last week's column I was singing the praises of the Green Bay Packers and mentioning the woes of the Washington Redskins after their week one games. This past Sunday, however, wasn't so golden for the Packers. The Redskins on the other hand looked much improved. Their running game was good, and their defense seemed better, but everything kind of fell apart for the Packers. There were injuries to some key players; their quarterback was under constant attack; and the defense didn't look as good as it did the week before. Obviously, this is only two weeks into the season. There are fourteen more games to go, this week the Redskins face off against the Raiders at home and the Packers host Cincinnati. Just as I said last week here that Washington had things to work on, now the Packers do. The Redskins did seem to address their weaknesses, as we need to do when it comes to our spiritual lives. I hope for a better game today and that each of us truly grows in holiness and virtue.

The Packers playing last Sunday night was not the only thing going on as there was also our parish's fifth annual Food, Farm, and Faith Dinner. It proved to be another wonderful evening. The food was outstanding from the appetizers to the main course to the dessert and cheese course. Everyone seemed to have a great time, which is part of the reason for this event. It is an opportunity to socialize with fellow parishioners in a beautiful setting at Clyde's Willow Creek Farm as we celebrate the gifts God gives us. Jesse Straight from Whiffletree Farm was one of the speakers. He also donated the eggs and meats served that night. The other speaker was Lothar Erbe of Lothar's Gourmet Sausages in Purcellville. He is donating the brats that will be served at Oktoberfest this Sunday. An additional word of gratitude then goes to Sandy Greeley and Fernando Flores, who again organized this exceptional evening. Sadly it will be Fernando's last Farm Dinner as his job is taking him overseas in about a month. That is a tremendous loss to St. Veronica's for he is involved in so many things here, such as the PTO, the Knights, and the Food Apostolate. We thank him and pray for him and his family.

As I mentioned above, we have our parish's annual Oktoberfest this Sunday. It is an afternoon and evening of great German fun. With its beer and other beverages, its brats and other German delicacies, with the German music, all at a reasonable cost, it is another great opportunity to gather as a parish to socialize and support each other. See you there! On a more spiritual front, I also want to remind you of the Arlington Diocesan Pilgrimage to the Basilica in Washington on Saturday, October 14th. St. Veronica's is providing transportation via the parish bus. Please see more information about this worthy event in this bulletin.

The last item this week is an update on our church renovations. We still are waiting for our new altar of sacrifice, altar of repose, ambo, and baptismal font. Sadly, I do not have a date for their arrival. I pray it is reasonably soon. It will be great to offer Mass on a full sized altar. You should have noticed that the old altar is now in the shrine area at the back of the church. It is serving as the pedestal for the Sacred Heart statue. There will be other changes to that area once the altars, etc. arrive. For instance the old ambo is currently and temporarily being stored. That will move to that shrine area. In addition, as was announced back in July, our "Wall of Relics" is finally coming together. The relic of St. Josemaria Escriva remains on that wall, joined now by the relic of St. Veronica's veil. The authenticity papers are also located there. This area is meant to be a place of prayer where intentions can be left, a candle lit, and the saints' intercession can be invoked. So, as always, please pray and then pray some more.

~ In Christ, Fr. Kleinmann

Life has many storms—distressful relationships, jobs, poor health, situations where we feel our powerlessness. If you know someone unbaptized or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition, who is searching for strength and understanding to weather such squalls, invite them to seek the perspective the Catholic Church offers. Please contact Scott Bradford, RCIA@stveronica.net, to inquire about classes held Monday evenings at 7:30 pm in the Pope St. John Paul II room. The topic this Monday, September 25th is "Creation and the Fall of Man." Join us!

That Man Is You! Continues Next Saturday

Join the men of TMIY on Saturday, September 30th for the next session of Unveiling of Love, a multi-week series that will help men grasp the depth and beauty of the Church's vision of love and marriage, and learn practical steps to overcome struggles in our spiritual life. - The Biology of Desire;
- The Reward System and Love;

40 Days for Life

From September 27th through November 5th, 40 Days for Life – 40 days of peaceful prayer and fasting for an end to abortion – will occur outside abortion mills throughout the United States and the world. Because the nearest high volume abortion mill is located in Falls Church, 40 Days for Life is asking St. Veronica's parishioners to expand our efforts. Specifically, we are asking parishioners to commit to offering intercessory prayers for an hour each weekday before the Blessed Sacrament to pray for families harmed by abortion. Our hope is that for one hour each Monday-Friday during 40 Days, someone will be praying in an Adoration Chapel to end abortion. In addition, you are invited to join Steven Grist each Saturday morning during 40 Days from 9:00-11:00 am in a peaceful prayer vigil outside the mill on 900 S. Washington Street in Falls Church. To sign up to pray for an hour during 40 Days, please contact Steven Grist at 703-925-0432 or steve.grist@cox.net or go to https://40daysforlife.com/.

Post-Abortion Healing Retreat for Women

Words of Our Lady of Fatima

"Do not offend the Lord our God any more, because He is already so much offended."

Divine Mercy Corner

"At three o'clock, implore My Mercy, especially for sinners: and if only for a brief moment, immerse yourself in My Passion, particularly in My abandonment at the moment of agony. This is the hour of great Mercy for the whole world. I will allow you to enter into My mortal sorrow. In this hour, I will refuse nothing to the soul that makes a request of Me in virtue of My Passion." Jesus to St. Faustina, Diary 1320.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
