WORSHIP

From Green to Gold – December 31, 2017

As we celebrate this feast of the Holy Family in the midst of the beautiful Christmas season, I actually am in Wisconsin with my family. I have been privileged since I have been here, almost unbelievably this is my third Christmas at St. Veronica's already, to be able to go home to "God's country" and spend time with my family the week between Christmas and New Year's. I thank Fr. Isenberg for that. At my previous parish I typically went home mid-January. While my parish family is now my life and truly does mean a lot to me, I still love my biological family. We are all very close, thankfully, as I realize that is not true of all families, sadly. As you may recall I am the oldest of eight with four brothers and three sisters and currently 20 nieces and nephews. My father is still alive, although my mother died over 28 years ago. I always enjoy going home, where all of my family still lives with the exception of one niece who is in Boston. So, I am enjoying that time away from the parish celebrating Christmas with my family.

Since I am home and as this is the season of Christmas and the feast of the Holy Family, I thought it might be appropriate to talk about family Christmas customs. It seems all families usually have these traditions that help focus our lives. As a child we would prepare for Christmas by watching certain Christmas movies. We would typically see A Charlie Brown Christmas, White Christmas, the old Miracle on 34th Street, and some years Holiday Inn, How the Grinch Stole Christmas, and A Christmas Carol. A movie we never missed was A Wonderful Life. We would decorate the house at least a week before Christmas, often it was a little sooner. My mother wasn't always fond of that practice for growing up, they decorated on Christmas Eve Day and never any sooner. Their decorations were left up through February 2nd. Ours usually came down on an earlier date. On Christmas Eve we had a wonderful dinner. I can still visualize the table of food. It included "raw beef and onions on rye," eggnog, different breads, all kinds of Christmas cookies, etc. After dinner we usually spent an hour or so driving around our nearby neighborhoods looking at others' outside Christmas decorations. My Dad was always delayed in getting to the car, so my mother and all of us kids just waited for him. When we arrived home Santa had come! It was our practice that our father handed out the gifts, and we had to patiently wait until that gift was opened before the next one could be—a great lesson in patience. That was followed by the exchange of gifts, as we exchanged names each year and still do to this day. Once this was finished, we normally had some time to spend together or perhaps even to get a short nap in before Midnight Mass. This Mass was meant to be the highlight of Christmas for us, and indeed it was. We could sleep in a bit on Christmas morning, but rarely did which allowed for some time spent with our new gifts before we headed off to my grandmother's home. This was my maternal grandmother. Both of my grandfathers died when I was very young and my Dad's Mom lived too far away. All of my aunts and uncles and cousins met at my grandmother's house for a huge meal which included all kinds of food. Pumpkin pie and mincemeat pie were always served as well as headcheese, which my grandmother made. Then our godparents would give their godchildren gifts. We lived the farthest away, but were usually the last to leave. The ride home, often through snow as I recall, was a fitting end to a wonderful and joy-filled day. It was a great way to celebrate the birth of Our Lord Jesus Christ. The focus was on Christ, on our Faith, and on our family. It is my hope and prayer, as I am away, that all of you had a merry Christmas Day and are having a blessed Christmas season. Next Sunday we celebrate the Epiphany and before that Bishop Burbidge will be here to dedicate and consecrate our new altar. Hopefully I will see you at 7:00 pm on Thursday, January 4th for that sacred event. A light reception will follow.

~ In Christ, Fr. Kleinmann

How Can We Protect Ourselves and Our Family from the Diabolical?

There's no doubt from reading scripture that Satan is real and our true enemy. Society today seems to be going downhill from a Christian perspective, and Satan's influence seems to be expanding. What tools did Christ leave us that we can use to protect those we love? What can we do to make our efforts in this area most effective and to convince people to avoid things that open them to the enemy of salvation. Come join the discussion with the Patricians on Monday, January 11th in the acolyte room at 7:00 pm. Snacks are provided.

2018 Diocesan Men's Conference

All men are invited to the Men's Conference on March 3rd, 2018, entitled "Marked Men: Made For Greatness," at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Herndon, which will feature one of the most celebrated Catholic speakers in the world of social media, Fr. Mike Schmitz, who will be joined by Bishop Burbidge and Billy Atwell, Chief Communications Officer of the Diocese. Continental breakfast and lunch will be served. Registration opens January 3rd at 9:00 am. To register, go to www.arlingtondiocese.org/men. Ticket price is $55 through February 1st, $65 after. Make sure to register ASAP as slots get filled quite quickly.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
